Hawaiian Electric Hearing Exhibit 13 – Corrected

On November 2, 2009, Hawaiian Electric Company, Inc. ("Hawaiian Electric") filed its Hearing Exhibit 13, which presented a comparison of bills between Schedule R and Schedule E. Enclosed for filing is a corrected copy of Hearing Exhibit 13. The Company apologizes for any inconvenience.

Very truly yours,

Enclosure

As requested in Panel Hearing 4, Employee Discount/Wage Panel, the comparison of bills that would be charged to Schedule R and Schedule E (active employees and retirees) customers for 825 kWh of usage, as of July 2009, is provided on page 2. Based on this comparison, Schedule E customers would pay $55.10 less than Schedule R customers which translates to a discount of 6.7¢ per kWh.

The following are the year 2008 Schedule R and Schedule E statistics requested by the Commission during the panel hearings:

	Schedule R	Schedule E
1. Number of Bills	3,121,786 ¹	25,248 ¹
2. Average monthly usage (kWh)	654	813
3. Median monthly usage (kWh)	537	727

¹ The statistics for Number of Bills were inadvertently transposed in the Hearing Exhibit 13 filed on November 2, 2009.
